Marine Lieut. Allen Dulles Critically Wounded in Korea

Marine Lieut. Allen Macy Dulles, 22, son of the deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has been critically wounded in Korea, the Marine Corps said yesterday.

Lieutenant Dulles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Dulles, 1308 29th st. nw. He is a nephew of John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser.

The Marine Corps said the lieutenant suffered "missile wounds" in the head, back and arm Saturday. He was taken aboard the hospital ship USS Consolation, where his condition was reported critical.

The Marine Corps said it could not identify the locality of the fighting where Dulles was injured.

He was born in New York City and graduated from Princeton University in 1951, at which time he was commissioned in the Marine Corps.

Navy Officer Arrested In Theft of $38,000

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 16

—The FBI today announced the arrest of a Navy disbursing officer from a United States destroyer at Portsmouth, Va., on a charge of embezzling approximately $38,000 of his ship's funds.

He was identified as Ensign George McClellan Snyder, 28, and quoted by Joseph Santolana, jr., FBI agent here, as saying he had squandered all but about $2600 on women, liquor, automobiles and travel. Snyder, who vanished about October 17, was arrested early today as he slept in a swanky resort hotel at Newport Beach, Calif.

DULLES NEPHEW IS WOUNDED IN KOREAN ACTION

Marine Lieutenant In Critical Condition

Marine Lt. Allen Macy Dulles, son of the deputy director of the central intelligence agency, has been critically wounded in Korea.

Young Dulles is a nephew of John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser mentioned as a possible choice of President-elect Eisenhower for secretary of state.

The Marine Corps said the lieutenant received "missile wounds" Friday in the head, back and right arm. He was taken aboard the hospital ship U.S.S. Consolation where his condition was reported as critical.

His father, Allen W. Dulles, is deputy director of the central intelligence agency, the chief espionage and security information agency for the government.
